Professional Profile

Keith joined Perkins & Co in 2001, bringing more than 30 years of experience in public practice with him. Before joining our firm, Keith was a partner in a successful local firm serving businesses and individual clients.

Keith heads the Business Valuation and Litigation Support practice at Perkins & Co. In addition to business valuations, Keith provides litigation support and expert witness testimony. His experience includes working with clients in wholesale and retail, professional services, the funeral industry, manufacturing and other industries.

Keith co-leads the Beer, Wine & Spirits Practice Group and has over 20 years of wine industry experience that includes providing valuations, financial consulting, and succession planning for over 40 top wineries in Oregon and Washington.

Keith specializes in providing business advice to closely-held businesses with an emphasis on succession planning. He holds certifications in business valuation and financial forensics. Keith is an active leader in the Oregon Society of Certified Public Accountants and is a past Chairman of the Society. In addition, he has taught in Marylhurst University's MBA program.
