EXECUTIVE SUMMARY

Keith joined Perkins & Co in 2001 and brought more than 30 years of experience in public practice with him. Prior to Perkins, he was a partner in a successful local firm serving businesses and individual clients.

Keith leads our Business Valuation and Litigation Support Practice Groups. In addition to business valuations, Keith provides litigation support and expert witness testimony. His experience includes working with clients in wholesale and retail, professional services, the funeral industry, manufacturing and other industries.

Keith also co-leads the Food & Beverage Practice Group and has over 20 years of wine industry experience that includes providing valuations, financial consulting, and succession planning for over 40 top wineries in Oregon and Washington.

Keith specializes in providing business advice to closely-held businesses with an emphasis on succession planning. In addition, he has taught in Marylhurst University's MBA program.
