

Shawna Parrish

CPA | Senior Manager

Shawna joined Perkins & Co in 2005 and is a senior manager in our tax department. She is a member of our Food & Beverage and Real Estate Practice Groups. Her clients in the food and beverage industry range from beverage manufacturing and distribution to breweries and restaurant owners and operators.

Shawna's professional experience includes tax compliance, consulting, and research with closely held and family owned businesses. The majority of her business clients are pass through entities such as S-Corporations, partnerships, and limited liability companies.

Her real estate industry experience allows her to work with property managers, commercial and residential developers, real estate investment funds, and private REITS. A common thread throughout the industries she serves is that closely held businesses require planning for both the company and the individual owners.
