EXECUTIVE SUMMARY

Masa is an International Tax Senior Manager at Perkins & Co. He provides services primarily in the area of international U.S. tax—advising on the structuring of new businesses and investments for U.S. inbound and outbound operations, cross-border transactions, and earnings repatriations. His expertise includes U.S. anti-deferral regimes applicable to certain foreign corporations as well as foreign trusts.

Also, he is internationally well-traveled too. Born in Tokyo, his career as a tax professional began in California where he started serving primarily Japanese businesses with some type of U.S. operations or exposures. Following, he worked eight years in British Columbia, Canada where he served in the cross-border environment both for businesses and personal clients, and then proceeded to join a firm in Vancouver, Wash. for several years before landing at Perkins & Co.
