EXECUTIVE SUMMARY

Peter joined Perkins & Co in 2003 and became the Director of Assurance in 2017. He is responsible for managing and overseeing engagements involving financial audits, financial consulting, and other assurance and attest services. He heads the firm's Risk Management practice, co-leads the firm's Technology practice, and is a member of the firm's Business Valuation Practice Group.

Peter's experience includes advising on technical accounting issues, such as IFRS, fair value, derivatives, revenue recognition and stock based compensation. Peter is also experienced in internal controls analysis, mergers and acquisition, due diligence reviews, and regulatory compliance. His background in financial reporting includes reviewing SEC disclosures, external financial statements, SEC registration statements, offering memorandums and other financial related documents. He also has coordinated due diligence teams, provided guidance on several multi-national engagements, and assisted clients during acquisition and divestiture negotiations.

Peter has experience working with private and public clients in high tech, manufacturing and distribution industries and he regularly provides financial recommendations and technical accounting guidance to senior management teams.

Prior to joining Perkins & Co, Peter was a corporate controller in private industry. He also spent ten years at the national accounting firm, Arthur Andersen, in their assurance and internal audit outsourcing practices.
